Foreword

We, the senior class, as we step off the school pedestal into the unknown future, hope that we have created for each individual an unforgettable memory of our school years. We shall never forget our classmates, teachers, and friends that have stood by us so closely during our golden years at Walnut. We trust our yearbook will be a cherished remembrance for each of you.

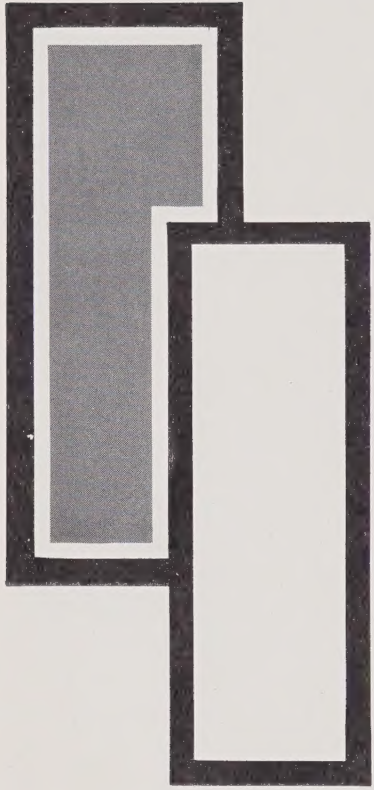

61

Dedication

For your understanding, patience, and guidance which has meant so much to us. For your kindness not only as a teacher, but also as a friend. For your willingness to help us solve our problems and share our heartaches, as well as our joys. To a man whom we shall never forget for his part in our education, we, the Senior Class of '61, do respectfully dedicate our annual to our teacher, friend, and coach, Mr. Glenwood Wallin.

The Senior Class of Walnut High School wishes to express their appreciation to all the members of the faculties for the past twelve years. It has been through their guidance and understanding that we have reached this goal of achievement. As we leave this school we realize without these wonderful people and their friendship we could have never made it thus far. We wish to thank some of the most deserving teachers we know.

Class History

CHAPTER I. Freshmen

In the fall of 1957 a new Freshman class was born at Walnut. This, our first year in high school was to make a lasting impression on all our lives. We felt now that we were in high school we had it made--until the first grading period. Several of us received low marks on some of our subjects and we just couldn't understand why, so we went to our sponsor to complain. Mr. Wallin explained to us the grade we received was the grade we had earned. "I can't force you to learn!" He said, "I can only guide you, and you can learn if you make an honest effort!"

There were 39 in our class that year, but we lost Gladys Ray, Mary Lee McDevitt, R.B. McDevitt, Walter Fortner, Harold Gosnell, Bobby Rice, and Paul Norton.

CHAPTER II. Sophomores

This year we began to think about the future. We were able to select the subjects which would most benefit each of us in life. We had set our goals high and now we were beginning to realize the work involved in attaining them.

This year we welcomed Clifford Boone into our class. We lost Sondra Ramsey, Sandra Ramsey, and Pearl Ramsey, Sharon Ledford, and Charles Adams.

CHAPTER III. Juniors

There are many things we will remember about our 11th year in school--our trip to Kentucky, choosing our class rings, and our Junior-Senior Banquet. At graduation we sang a farewell song to the seniors of '60 knowing that we would soon assume the role of "Seniors of Walnut High School."

Clayton Hensley, Kenneth Davis, and Evelyn Freshour joined our class this year. We lost Craig Burnette and Kenneth Davis at the end of the year.

CHAPTER IV. Seniors

This year we did most everything any senior class does but in a way each one seemed special....We will always remember "Miss Dusenberry" and "Miss Hannah" from our senior play and our trip to Washington and New York City.

Like most senior classes we must leave behind teachers and friends to whom we will always be grateful for fellowship and guidance.

Class Poem

Another year has crept quietly by,
Another year of life under the Golden Rule,
Another page is written in the history books,
And another class is leaving Walnut School.

This is the climax of our twelve long years together,
And tomorrow we must say good-bye,
Then we must make our departure,
And forever be gone from old Walnut High.

Many of our friends we'll never see again,
Many a smile we'll always be without,
But that will not discourage us,
We'll never forget them no doubt.

We shall always treasure our golden memories,
Of friends we have known for so long,
We shall often recall them in the future,
And live in happiness as we go along.

Johnny Rigsby

Class Song

To the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance"

We have been together
For the past twelve years.
To think that we are leaving
Will make us shed many tears.
Now the time has come.
Now we'll say goodbye;
For the seniors are leaving
Dear old Walnut Hi,
Fore the seniors are leaving
Dear old Walnut Hi.

Now we've finished our song!
Now we'll go on our own!
The senior class will miss you
In the years to come.
Now we'll say goodbye,
Now we seniors will leave our
Dear old Walnut Hi,
Now we seniors will leave our
Dear old Walnut Hi.
